London, Oct. 2.

The universal relief resulting from the favourable turn in the Near East is reflected in this morning's editorials, though it is pointed out that the path of peace is still beset with serious dangers, and it is premature to assume that the problem will promptly be solved. The Turks are still making sweeping demands, while post-revolutionary Greece's evident intentions and hopes regarding Thrace constitute another uncertain factor, which evidently is also causing the Kemalists uneasiness.

Several London papers are perturbed at the arrival of M. Venizelos and his call at the Foreign Office.

It is reported from Thrace that the Greek Army's moral is improving. Dangerous possibilities there are shown by the fact that frequent collisions of Greek troops with Turkish bands are already occurring.

The press generally is disposed to favour immediate Greek evacuation of Thrace if Ankara promises acceptance of the terms of the Allied note to which the British Government firmly adheres. It is suggested that Inter-Allied commissions might then control Thrace, pending final settlement.

The Turks are still concentrating on Ismid peninsula, though they have ceased to invade the neutral zone, where the British now occupy the whole coast of the Narrows.

While the Opposition press gives credit for the improved outlook to Major-General Harrington's sagacious handling, the Coalitionist Chronicle declares the incalculable disaster of the loss of the freedom of the Straits has been averted by the firm and reasonable stand which the British Government alone had the courage to make.

The fact that 175,000 refugees have already been shipped from Smyrna and the evacuation is still proceeding smoothly has given general satisfaction.

BRITAIN'S FINANCES.

London, Oct. 2.

The six months' revenue returns mentioned yesterday show a surplus of £56,000,000 of revenue over expenditure, and appear to be most satisfactory, as the Chancellor had anticipated a revenue shrinkage of £214,000,000 for the full year. Moreover, the six months' expenditure declined by £150,000,000 compared with an expected full year's decline of £169,000,000.

The Shanghai Gazette to-night prints an editorial comment from three Chinese newspapers saying the Hongkong Telegraph and its interpretation of the Sun Yat-sen correspondence, the Minkuo Jih-pao saying "the editor of a Hongkong Paper has contended the term 'democratic opinion' with Bolshevism." It refers to Sun Yat-sen as the "faithful leader of Republicanism." The Cheng Hwa Shin-pao regards the Telegraph characterisation as a "gross mistake" and lauds Dr. Sun as a believer in the development of national wealth through the nationalisation of industries. He says that Von Hintze is a well-known conservative and that Germany is not a Bolshevik nation; furthermore, Von Hintze is associated with the monarchical faction. The Shin Shih Hsin-pao stresses the triple alliance, saying that oppressive nations will combine and work together sooner or later. All three papers are organs of the Southern Government. Dr. Sun Yat-sen is temporarily indisposed and has cancelled all appointments this afternoon plus an important conference to-night.

ALLEGED ARMED ROBBERY.

Five Men Charged.

The hearing began at the Magistrate's yesterday afternoon of the case in which five men were charged with committing an armed robbery at 23 Wing Woo Street on the night of the 31st. September. The first defendant was further charged with shooting a Chinese detective with the intent to murder and with having a revolver and five rounds of ammunition without a permit. The additional charges against the second accused were wounding a silk merchant named Mahtani with intent to murder and unlawful possession of a dagger.

The robbery took place on Sunday night, the 31st. September, a robber gang breaking into the first floor of 23 Wing Woo Street and carrying away about $920 in cash and a quantity of jewellery. The first defendant was caught after a desperate struggle with Revenue Officer Ward, a European ship's officer and a Chinese detective and did not submit to arrest until he had been shot in three places by the policemen. The second accused is alleged to have stabbed Mr. Mahtani, who stopped him as he was running away. Defendant was knocked down by the principal tenant of 23 Wing Woo Street with a smoking pipe, and arrested.

European Helpers.

Outlining the facts of the case Detective Inspector Appleton stated that about 7 p.m. on the 31st, the five defendants and two or three others met at the Yaumati theatre after plans had been made by the fourth defendant, who said he would take the gang to his sister's house in Wing Woo Street. The party crossed the harbour by the Yaumati ferry and after landing proceeded direct to 23 Wing Woo Street. On entering the first floor the first and second defendants, who were armed with a revolver and a dagger respectively, went out to the first balcony and terrorised the occupants. They got the keys of the inmates and opened a safe, from which they removed $920 in money, ten gold buttons, and four gold finger rings. The second accused also stole a pair of gold bangles from the wrists of a woman, the second defendant pointed his dagger so closely at one of the men lying on the floor that he indicated a small wound on the man's cheek. Their object having been attained the gang ran down the stairs and escaped in different directions. At the same time one of the inmates of the house threw an earthenware pot into the street to attract attention and blew a police whistle. Carrying the stolen money in his pocket the first defendant ran along Des Voeux Road, and as he was running some of the money dropped out. Revenue Officer Ward, who happened to be near by, heard the alarm and, seeing the accused running away, gave chase. After covering some distance and knowing that he was being chased, the accused slackened down and walked along as if nothing had happened. He soon espied the Revenue Officer and resumed his flight. After he had turned into Talman Street the defendant was overtaken by the Revenue Officer, who followed him, which Mr. Ward had the assistance of a ship's officer and Chinese detective. Defendant drew out his revolver and fired point blank at the policeman, the bullet passing through the clothing of the detective and grazing his arm. The detective used his revolver and shot the defendant in the buttock. Another attempt was made by the defendant to use his revolver, and the detective shot him in the foot. Defendant then fell. On searching him the police found a bunch of keys, which had since been identified by one of the complainants, and $50 in money.

With an Opium Pipe.

Inspector Appleton then related the circumstances of the second defendant's arrest. Mr. Mahtani, the Inspector said, was walking in Wing Woo Street, when the defendant was running towards him. Immediately after he put his arms round the man's waist Mr. Mahtani was stabbed on the head and other parts of the body. The defendant would have escaped but for the timely arrival of the principal tenant of 23 Wing Woo Street, who was smoking a long opium pipe outside his house while the robbers were ransacking his premises. He ran up to the defendant and dealt several heavy blows on him, thus helping in the arrest.

Inspector Appleton said that the other three defendants were arrested subsequently on the information of the police.

tion of the first two men. The only evidence against them the statements of the first two defendants.

Dr. D. J. Valentine, of the Government Civil Hospital, stated that the wounds on Mr. Mahtani comprised a long incised opening on the right side of the skull, two stab wounds in front of the right knee and over the right shoulder. There was a small incised wound on the left forearm. The incision had lost a good deal of blood and was in a weak condition.

Defendants' Wounds.

In reply to the Magistrate Dr. Valentine said that he did not think the wounds were inflicted with the deliberate intention of murder; they were such as was to be expected from a man endeavouring to escape. He did not think the wounds would leave any permanent ill-effects.

Dr. Valentine said that he also examined a Chinese detective. The left shoulder of the policeman was grazed, but the skin was not broken.

Speaking on the wounds of the first defendant Dr. Valentine said that the man was shot through the left thigh, but the bullet missed the bone. A shot went right through the joint of the defendant's left index finger. The man's right foot was also shot, the bullet entering under the instep and being located above the little toe. The second defendant, said the doctor, showed a wound below the left eye, the skin being broken. There was a small cut on the skull and a contused wound on the left shoulder.

Dr. C. Y. Wang, acting Government bacteriologist, reported no finding of human blood on the dagger produced.

The case was adjourned.

MEN.The Discussion of Political Matters.

There was a large attendance of members at the first annual general meeting of the Ex-Active Service Men's Association held at the Easna Club last evening. It took three hours to transact the business, much of which consisted of the consideration of the rules. The Chairman (Mr. E. H. Wilson) conducted the proceedings, and was supported by Lieut. W. St. A. Malleson, V.C., R.N., (President), Mr. N. Teesdale Mackintosh and Mr. W. J. E. Mackenzie (Vice President), Mr. L. D. Martyn (Vice Chairman), Mr. A. M. Bowes-Smith (Hon. Treasurer) and Mr. P. P. Franklin and Mr. H. J. Timperley (Joint Hon. Secretaries).

The Chairman presented the Committee's report of the year's activities. He referred to the various successful social functions held and mentioned that the Association had been able to assist a number of ex-active service men in distress. As a result of the year's work they were in a position of being one of the most promising and significant organisations in the Colony.

The report and financial statement having been adopted, the President addressed a few outspoken words to the members and appealed to them to support the Committee and make the work of running the Association much easier than had been the case during the past year.

Political Discussions.
To Rule 9, which forbids discussion of political or religious matters, Mr. Millington sought to add the words "other than those which may directly affect the particular interests of ex-active service men or which, in the opinion of the Association, are opposed to the objects for which it was formed." He illustrated as a case in which he thought the Association's voice should have been heard, the Registration Bill introduced into the Legislative Council and subsequently withdrawn.

Mr. Mackenzie pointed out that a big proportion of the members of the Association were civil servants and they were not allowed to discuss any action taken by the Government. It seemed to him that if any question arose in which the Legislative Council were concerned, the civil servants would have to live very low.

A suggestion was made that the rule should be deleted altogether. Mr. Mackintosh thought it would be very dangerous for the Association to do away with the rule. The Association was at present on its trial. It was born under circumstances which might almost amount to persecution. He thought that before they could do away with the rule the Association must be put on stronger financial grounds than that upon which it was standing at present. Should the moment ever arise when matters vitally affecting ex-active service men were being discussed in the political arena of Hongkong they had their remedy, and that was to call an extraordinary meeting of the Club and wipe out the rule. To do this before they were forced to it was to his mind, thoroughly bad policy. If the civil servants had to choose between the Club and their bread and butter he had no doubt that their choice would be the Club.

Mr. Mackenzie mentioned that the only question affecting the Club which the Government had taken up had reference to charity and then both the Ex-Active Service Men's Association and the British Legion were consulted. He did not think the Government would take any action which would affect a large body of ex-service men without finding out officially what their feeling was in the matter (Hear, hear).

After some further discussion, the amendment was put to the

A GALA WEEK FOR
KOWLOON.Appearance of a Variety Co.

To local theatre enterprise is due the opportunity which now comes to Kowloon of having a musical show all on its own. There arrived from Manila on Sunday the members of the International Variety Troupe, an association of fourteen talented music hall entertainers—who are accompanied by a jazz band calculated to be able to extract colorful music from all sorts of instruments. Owing to the early departure of their ship for the Dutch East Indies where they are under contract for a long season, a prolonged stay here is impossible; but a special arrangement with the Star Theatre people has enabled these enterprising cinema folk to change for once the usual entertainment provided for Kowloon and give it for the first time in its humdrum existence, something of a real musical show. Included in the Company are Miles Blundy and Denay, two French songwriters, who intersperse their singing with some remarkable exhibitions of dancing. Mile L. Vidal is another talented member of the Company who, because she is a first-rate exponent of the shimmy, hula-hula, Baleros and Tarentula dances, established a big hit with the enthusiastic theatre-going crowd down in Manila. Then there are Messrs. C. Vidal and Denay who are comedians with a penchant for singing sentimental songs. They will appear with the ladies in some burlesque, while Mr. Majuro is at his best in operette items. The Company appear at the Star Theatre to-morrow and Thursday. Bookings may be made at the Hong Kong Wharf of the Star Ferry, where a free trip both ways is included, also at the Theatre as usual.

Powder Puffs at Kowloon.

On Sunday, the second venture of the Star Theatre people into the theatrical line will be seen in the appearance of the Powder Puffs at the Theatre Royal, Kowloon. Residents are thus enabled without the trouble of crossing over to the mainland, to see a show which is brought directly to their doors, and to speak. There will be only two performances at the Star Theatre these being the last appearances of the Powder Puffs in the Colony before their departure. Bookings are at Moutrie and at the Theatre for both the 5.15 matinee and soiree. The former is at popular prices.

meeting. It found but meagre support, and the Committee's recommendation was adopted practically unanimously.

An outport member drew attention to the circular sent out by the Chairman in which it was mentioned that matters gravely affecting the reputation of the Association would probably be discussed. The outport members gave way to no-one, he said, in their desire to maintain the honour and reputation of the Association and if such matters were likely to be brought up in future he asked that they should be given sufficient notice in order that they might have an opportunity of presenting their views.

The Chairman promised that this should be done.

Athletic Activities.

Mr. Chaney asked what was being done to cater for the athletic members of the Club. They had a bowls team and anticipated getting together cricket and football teams. He thought that the Committee should approach the authorities with the view to getting a ground.

The Chairman replied that the matter was discussed at the last Committee meeting and it was decided to leave it to the incoming Committee to deal with.

The Officers.

The election of officers resulted as under:
President, Mr. N. Teesdale Mackintosh; Vice-Presidents, Mr. W. J. E. Mackenzie and Dr. W. W. Pearce; Chairman, Mr. F. H. Wilson; Vice-Chairman, Mr. L. D. Martyn; Hon. Secretary, Mr. T. N. MacKintosh; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. A. M. Bowes-Smith; Committee, Mr. E. S. Carter, Mr. G. M. W. Dorkins, Mr. C. Earnshaw, Mr. F. E. Franklin, Mr. H. Griffin, Lt. W. St. A. Malleson, V.C., R.N., Mr. H. J. Pearce, Mr. H. A. Rodgers, Mr. E. Stock and Mr. H. J. Timperley.

Before the meeting closed, thanks were accorded the Chairman for presiding, the retiring Hon. Secretaries and Mr. F. R. P. Jones, who, in the position of Hon. Treasurer, did much useful work for the Association.

SERVICE.

Spain to Argentine.

By the spring of next year the first regular Transatlantic air service will be established.

It will run from Seville, in Spain, to Buenos Ayres, a distance of about 5,000 miles.

Airships, which have been specially designed and are of the Zeppelin type, will be used.

The first of these Zeppelins, which are being built by German mechanics, is near completion. It will undergo its trial trips before the end of October.

There are many innovations in the craft. Special attention has been given to the perfecting of apparatus for night-flying; there will be a wireless telephony apparatus, so that passengers may listen to messages broadcast from various land stations. For wealthy travellers there will be available handsome suites of rooms.

PROMENADE ALONG THE HULL.

It is intended later to lay down larger and even more luxurious airships for use on the service. Plans for these have been prepared by German designers, who are pushing the Zeppelin in various countries, including America. These levitons will be built for the accommodation of about 500 passengers.

A feature of them will be a kind of promenade running along the giant hull. The sides will be open.

In the roughest of weathers, it is claimed, these huge air liners will be absolutely steady and without vibration.

The journey from Spain to America will occupy about three days. After the first year, which will be largely experimental, it is expected that fares will be less than those of steamship lines.

A Spanish company, backed by the Government, is financing the venture.

JAPANESE GUARDS AT HUNCHUN.

Special attention has been paid to the increase of the Japanese troops in the five districts of Yenchi and Hunchun by the Central Government. It is learned that the Japanese guards there have extended their defence circuits to the frontiers secretly and at the same time military telephones have been erected all the way through. Dr. Wellington Koo, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has lodged a strong protest with Minister Obata against the secret increase of the Japanese troops, and a recommendation has been made to the effect that the Japanese Consul at Mukden should be prevented from sending troops to the five districts in question.—Chungking Post.

GENERAL NEWS.

PROVINCES ACTUALLY SEND MONEY TO PEKING.

The Shen Chi Pao, contains a report that official information indicates that at least three provinces have made response to the Central Government's instruction urging the remittance of the national incomes. Recently Kiangsu has handed over $60,000 as the incomes of the Stamp Duty, Anhwei $80,000 as the Tobacco and Wine Tax and Honan $30,000 as the miscellaneous taxes. There are now $170,000 in deposit and in the meantime the Hatanen Octroi has also remitted a surplus of about $100,000 for the month of August to the Ministry of Finance. It is expected that more funds will be received from the other provinces in the near future.

Portrait of Mrs. OOFF, of Buxton, England, who suffered from a blood-mixture.

"For five years I suffered greatly from an ulcerated leg, which at one time was covered with open wounds from knee to foot, there being as many as 21 wounds in it at once. I tried all sorts of preparations, and attended the hospital, but nothing seemed to do me any good and I was sent away from the hospital as incurable. One day my daughter saw Clarke's Blood-Mixture advertised in a newspaper and read it to me, and I decided to give it a trial. Finding the first lot was doing me good I persevered with it, and after having four bottles my leg was completely healed. All this happened some eight years ago, and I have had no return of the trouble ever since."

Sufferers from Bad Legs, Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Dropsy, Eczema, Psoriasis, Scabies, Itch, and all skin diseases, can but give temporary relief to be sure of complete and lasting benefit the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter, the true cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood-Mixture gently attacks, overcomes, and expels the impurities, that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take and free from injurious ingredients.

PEER LEAVES ONLY £1,011.

Probably one of the smallest sums ever left by a peer is that of Lord Napier of Magdala, whose will has been proved at £1,011. 10s. Son of the first peer, the famous Field-Marshal who captured Magdala in the Abyssinian campaign of 1868, he succeeded to the pension of £2,000 a year granted to his father for his services on that occasion. This pension was for two lives only, and ceased with the death of the late peer, who as a very junior subaltern took part in his father's Abyssinian victory. He is succeeded by his brother, Colonel James Napier.

SUN'S PRESUMPTION.

A point which must have struck many of our readers in connection with Sun Yat-sen's efforts to bring about an understanding between China, Germany and Russia is the calm assurance shown by this revolutionary leader in presuming to speak for China. It is an aspect of the disclosures which deserves more than passing notice. We do not, of course, and would never wish to, question China's right to make friends with whom she pleases. We may, in common with all commentators, point out the unwisdom of particular alliances, but the right of concluding them is indisputably a matter for the nation concerned to exercise.

But in this particular instance it is not a case of China's accredited statesmen seeking to carry out an international engagement. Dr. Sun, who holds no political office whatever, has the effrontery to seek, through a paid emissary, to bring about an understanding in which he has not the slightest right to involve his country and which, happily for China, he has not the least power to carry into effect. Here we have a man who, at the time he was actively interesting himself in this proposed alliance, was conducting by means of his Northern Expedition military operations against the only recognised Government of the country, who took it upon himself to assume the title of President and who had so little authority among even the people of his native Province that he was shortly afterwards compelled to flee from Canton and, in fleeing, to seek the protection of the British flag. Glad enough to invoke British help in order to save his skin, he now turns round and dubs Britain, in common with all other Powers save Germany and Russia, as a nation disinclined to extend the hand of friendship to the Chinese. Could ingratitude go further? But that point apart, we ask the Chinese what possible right this man had to endeavour to negotiate with Germany and Russia, or to speak for the Chinese people. Yet he calmly confesses that he has been so engaged.

Another point. These are days when we hear much of the necessity, in the interests of world peace, of an end being put to secret diplomacy. The League of Nations, (of which, incidentally, China is a member) stands for that policy. One of its articles provides that every treaty or international engagement entered into by members of the League shall be registered with the Secretariat and be subsequently published by it. Yet here we have Dr. Sun endeavouring to bring about a secret alliance, keeping the knowledge of his activities even from his own immediate followers. Luckily, he had not the power to put the project through, but the correspondence we have unearthed shows that he had the intention, at any rate, and if he did happen to come into power there is little doubt that he would have committed his country to a secret understanding without consulting anybody. We ask the Chinese whether this is the type of man to whom they would care to entrust the destinies of their country. He has damned himself by his confessions of the part he has played in this madcap enterprise.

Who is for St. James?

Simultaneously with the impending change in the British Legation at Peking, there is to be a fresh appointment to the Chinese Legation in London. Dr. Wellington Koo was to have returned to the Court of St. James, but the Chinese Cabinet has claimed him. The other day it was reported that Mr. Alfred Sze, who was Minister in London before he went to Washington on changing places with Dr. Koo, will resume his post in the British capital; now the Eastern Times states Dr. C. C. Wu is to be the new appointee. That the late Dr. Wu Ting-fang's son should be mentioned in connection with the post is a matter of special interest to Hongkongites, who will be curious to see whether the report is substantiated. The explanation given for the reshuffle is that Dr. W. W. Yen, the erstwhile Foreign Secretary and Chief Premier, is going to re-enter the Diplomatic Service and prefers Washington. There may be two reasons for this. One is that Dr. Yen and the British Minister, says rumour, did not altogether "hit it off"; another is that, as the son of the late Rev. S. K. Yen, of the American Baptist Mission at Shanghai and himself a graduate of Virginia University, Dr. Yen probably feels a special interest in the United States. Mr. Sze, on the other hand, has links with England. When he was transferred to Washington he left his son at the ancient and famous foundation of Winchester. Sze junior is in his house cricket eleven, and is ambitious of gaining his "blue." It remains to be seen, however, upon whom the choice for the Legation in London will fall.

An "Ammo" Dump.

One of the problems with which the abortive or suspended Changchun conference was expected to face was the disposal of the "ammo" at Vladivostok supplied by allied countries to Russia, but placed under an embargo after the revolution in that country. Some of it has not been paid for, but, as the result of all the confusion in Siberia, it is impossible now to separate one lot from another. The Soviet or the Far Eastern Republic, which cannot be readily distinguished, claims it as the official Government; the Administration of the Maritime Province, composed of "White" Russians, in whose territory the ammunition has been stored, does likewise. To hand it to either promise to accentuate the strife between the two Japan, who has custody of the store, was credited at one time with the idea of cutting the Gordian knot by conveying the whole collection to the high seas and dumping it overboard, presumably with the acquiescence of the other interested Powers. While the question has been in abeyance the stores have mysteriously started to "walk," and the Japanese officer in charge has been arrested. No fewer than thirty-two truckloads, says a Reuter message, have found their way to Chang Tso-lin's stronghold at Mukden. The Tokyo Government, denying a reported plan for a buffer State in conjunction with Chang and General Dietrichs (President of the Maritime Province), acknowledges the disappearance of part

DAY BY DAY.

A MAN WHO GIVES HIS FRIENDS AWAY FINDS HE HASN'T ANY LEFT.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Epstein left for San Francisco by the a.s. President Wilson to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wu left Hongkong by the a.s. President Wilson for Shanghai to-day.

Sir Beilby Alston, H.M. Minister to Peking, leaves for Rome in November, states the Shunpo, and his successor will arrive in December.

The Kowloon Theatre's first dance of the season is to take place to-night. The jazz band of the "President Jackson" is to provide the music.

Shameen residents will have an opportunity of seeing "The Powder Puffs," who are playing at the Canton Club Theatre on Monday and Tuesday nights.

The rainfall registered at the Botanic Gardens during September totalled 8.51 inches, of which 3.23 inches fell on the 20th. There were fifteen days when no rainfall was registered.

The manager of the Lo Koo Sam firm of importers and exporters has reported to the police the loss of $1,301 worth of clothing and property coincident with the disappearance of a foki who has not yet been found.

We have received a copy of the Hongkong Technical Institute's prospectus, which has just commenced a new session. There are engineering, commercial and science sections in connection with the Institute, as well as teachers' classes.

Another motor accident has occurred in the Whitefield district. A Chinese was knocked down on the Causeway Bay road near the Ming Yuen Gardens by a motor car and received injuries to his body which necessitated his removal to hospital.

Mr. C. B. Buyers has just resigned the post of Superintendent of the Peak Tramways after holding the position for 25 years. He came East as far back as 1880. During his period of service there has not been a single accident to any passenger using the tramway. Mr. Buyers intends settling down in Edinburgh.

An armed robbery has been reported from Wanchai. At 9.30 last night a woman who lives in No. 34 Sullah Lane was awakened by the noise occasioned by the robbers in entering and she states that she saw five men, four of whom were armed with daggers. They ransacked the place, eventually making off with $137 worth of property.

of the ammunition, and is holding an inquiry. Critics of Japan will probably say that whether the Government of that country is concerned in the plan or not, Japanese militarists are, as to which, however, it will be advisable to wait for further information. What is known is that emissaries of Chang have been on the prowl around the Vladivostok store in combination with the Dietrichs party. In fact, a later report from Tokyo makes it pretty clear that a large consignment did reach Mukden, and it therefore remains to ascertain the how and the why. This development may precipitate the further Chang-Wu clash that has been in the air for some weeks.

Armed Robbery Again.

The audacity of the armed robber fraternity grows daily. Only a little while ago there was a robbery at the Sun Co's premises during the hours of business. Then we had two armed robberies in progress simultaneously, so that the confusion aided the culprits in their escape. Last Friday there was the Wing Wo Street boarding-house robbery, when Detective Sgt. Sin Chuen was fatally shot. Now we have two robbers holding up a victim at Causeway Bay on Saturday afternoon of all times, and with the utmost deliberation. An even more glaring case, if possible, is recorded as occurring on Sunday afternoon, when a Chinese servant was robbed in Jordan Road of $68 and again attacked by the same marauder, who discovered a small further sum on the servant's person. This increasing audacity is one of the most disquieting symptoms

HONGKONG CHILDREN'S CHARTER.

A Canton Comment.

In the course of a leading article on Hongkong's new child-labour law, the Canton Times says:—It is a sad thing to observe the almost prevalent phenomenon of parents especially the poor ones, depending upon their little children to contribute to the sustenance of the family earnings. In some instances the earnings of the child is a necessity but we fear that in the majority of cases the same can be dispensed with without much difference to the welfare of the household. In many instances to be without the child's labour may be an incentive to make the father more industrious and the mother more economical. Anyway, we believe that what the people need is a sound education in the welfare of their children. The little income they obtain from the earnings of the child is more than counter-balanced by the greater evils to which they have subjected their child. If we take Canton for illustration, we shall find that the most a child can earn in every manner of work-shop or establishment is about one dollar a month or twelve dollars a year. Take away the cost of clothing and there is very little left. As a master of fact many children can be found working day and night and just getting in return their board and lodging. So far as we know there is no law regulating the hours of work or the conditions under which the child may be employed. If Hongkong can bestir themselves about the welfare of the children there, surely there is nothing to hinder us from taking the initial step in this direction.

We cannot dismiss this subject without invoking the aid of the educational leaders in our community to greater activity in behalf of the many young children in the various alleys and dingy sweat-shops of our city. We believe some sort of a commission ought to be formed at once to look into this matter and submit a report to the government so that some start can be made in saving many precious young lives for future usefulness and service. The problem here is very much more difficult. A comprehensive and painstaking study must be made and intelligent suggestions can then be summed up for the Government to act upon.

GOLF MATCH.

K.C.C. v. K.B.G.C.

Below we give the detailed scores in the golf match between the golfing sections of the Kowloon Cricket Club and the Kowloon Bowling Green Club, the K.C.C. players being mentioned first in each instance. On the singles, the Cricket Club men won by 10 to 7, the foursomes being drawn.

Singles.—T. Grant beat J. Parkes; J. C. Fletcher beat J. Hyde; H. Overy lost to J. Jack; A. W. E. Davidson beat W. McKay; G. W. Avenell lost to Woodger; H. E. Stevens lost to H. W. Page; W. J. Shenton lost to T. Cochrane; F. G. Herdridge beat Cade Smith; P. Heathcote lost to J. H. Kynoch; J. Smith beat R. V. Cameron; V. C. Labrum lost to E. E. Nicholls; A. W. Muir beat F. E. Cook; J. Comley beat W. Barr; W. J. Edwards beat McKelvie; F. O. Todd beat Welch; C. Hatt lost to H. Davis.

Foursomes.—Grant and Fletcher lost to Parkes and Hyde; Query and Davidson lost to Jack and McKay; Avenell and Stevens beat Woodger and Page; Shenton and Herdridge lost to Cochrane and Cade Smith; Heathcote and Smith halved with Kynoch and Cameron; Labrum and Muir beat Nicholls and Cook; Comley and Edwards beat Barr and McKelvie; Todd and Hatt beat Welch and Davis.

CHINESE PRESSMEN GIVE THREE CHEERS FOR LABOUR.

The Chinese Labour Federation gave a tea at National University for the Newspapermen of Peking. There were present many of the leaders of the Kin-han and Kin-Sui strikers as well as those representing the Han-yang Arsenal workers. The labour delegates urged that they be given the support of the press and that their case be given full publicity. In return the newspaper men responded heartily and ended by giving three cheers for labour.

INTIMIDATION CASE.

A "Husband's" Trick.

A case quilled by the police to-day on the charge of intimidation brought against four Chinese was that a woman who went on to the garden at the roof of the Sincere Store the other day deceived two unsuspecting males into a house at Lascar Row, where, shortly afterwards, four men made their appearance, one of whom announced that he was the woman's husband. He wanted to know what the other men were doing there, and demanded a gold watch as compensation for the loss of face that he sustained as a result of the conduct of his wife.

The case was adjourned, Mr. R.E.A. Webster being for the prosecution and Mr. H. C. Lee for two of the accused.

VIOLIN RECITAL.

To-Morrow's Programme.

Mishel Piastro the noted violinist, is to give a recital at the City Hall to-morrow at 5.30 p.m. with Mr. Harry Ore at the piano. The programme is as follows:—

- 1.—Sonata A. Major: Cesar Franck.
- 2.—2nd. Concerto D. minor: Wieniawski.
- 3.—(a) The Lark: Glinka-Auer. (b) La Capricieuse: Elgar. (c) Hindoo Chant: Rimsky-Korsakoff. (d) Spanish Serenade: Chamade-Kreisler.
- 4.—(a) The Lonely Wanderer: Grieg-Piastro. (b) La Ronde des Lutins: Bazzini. (Witches Dance).

TO-DAY'S MISCELLANY.

Das considerable fall in spite prices this year, the rent of grouse and deer forests in no way recalls the good old days when shooting was a cheap amusement. The Highlands first began to attract sportsmen a few years before the accession of Queen Victoria, and even in the first fever of the craze £300 was considered a very high price for the rent of a forest. Lord Malmesbury in 1836 was offered the range of a splendid run of country, with grouse, deer, and fishing of the best, for a rent of £25, and thought that excessive, lamenting the fact that only a few years earlier "a stranger could shoot or fish over almost any part of the Highlands without interruption, the letting value of the ferae naturae being unknown to their possessors.

Novel-writers may claim to understand their own business best, but perhaps a novel-reader (writes a correspondent in the Manchester Guardian) may be permitted to doubt whether they are wise in restricting their titles often to single words and such words. The late Sir Walter Raleigh once remarked of some of Miss Edgeworth's tales that such titles as "Ennui" and "Manoeuvring" paralysed the story by anticipation. What, then, must be the effect of such titles as "Brass," "Dust," "Sand," "Humbung," and "Futility?" Elaboration in a novel's title does not interfere with its acceptableness. The full title of a well-known "best seller" is as follows:—The Pilgrim's Progress from this World to that which is to come: delivered under the similitude of a Dream. Wherein is discovered the Manner of his setting out, his dangerous Journey, and safe arrival at the Desired Country. "Robinson Crusoe" is really "The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, Mariner." When Scott used a single word for a title he usually balanced it with an alternative or an extension, like "Waverley, or 'Tis Sixty Years Since," "Ivanhoe, a Romance," and "Redgauntlet, or a Tale of the Eighteenth Century." We talk about "Pendennis," but what Thackeray wrote was "The History of Pendennis, His Fortunes and Misfortunes, His Friends and His Greatest Enemy," and Dickens at his best revelled in such an elaboration as "The Personal History, Adventures, Experience, and Conversations of David Copperfield, the Younger of Blunderstone Rookery, which he never meant to be published on any account."

DAY BY DAY.

During the absence of Lieut. Col. W. N. Nicholson in North China, Major R. F. Daubuz, R.A., is acting as D.A.A. and Q.M.G.

At the World Theatre there is being screened to-night and to-morrow only an exceptional six-reel picture entitled "House Without Children." The story is adapted from the play by Robert McLoughlin and is directed by Samuel Brodsky. It is a film which no-one should miss.

Last week's health return shows four cases of enteric fever (one Indian and the rest Chinese), and one occurrence each of plague (Chinese), cholera (Chinese), diphtheria (Eurasian) and cerebro-spinal fever (Chinese). All were non-fatal excepting the plague case. There were also two Chinese deaths from influenza.

When an Indian, described as a watchman, appeared before Mr. R.E. Lindell this morning on a charge of being drunk and incapable, his Worship asked if he were a follower of the Prophet to whom all intoxicants are taboo. "Are you a Mahomedan? Then you ought to be ashamed of yourself." The accused, who appeared to look startled for a moment, was fined.

A sentence of four months' hard labour was imposed on the two men concerned in a charge of intimidating a "sing-song" girl and demanding a sum of $160 for her. The accused, when asked for their statements this morning, denied all knowledge of each other or of the reason why their names appeared on the slip of blackmailers given to the police by the girl after she had received it from the accused.

Dr. George Chien Hsu, former Minister of Justice in the Canton Government, who has been offered a similar post in the new Cabinet, has telegraphed to Dr. Wang Chung-hui, the Premier, stating that he cannot go to Peking to assume this new position, as he wishes to devote his time to literary work in Shanghai and to advocate national salvation through Christianity.

During the visit of Queen Mary to the Church Missionary Society's exhibition at the Agricultural Hall, London, the Venerable Archdeacon Barnett had the honour of being introduced to Her Majesty who questioned him very keenly about Hongkong and was most interested to hear about the visit to the Colony of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales. It will be remembered that the Prince of Wales laid the foundation stone of the new St. Stephen's Girls' College during his visit here, the Archdeacon making the formal petition. Archdeacon Barnett preached at Westminster Abbey on one of the Sunday evenings in August.

The Chinese press reports that the Committee of the Good Roads Movement has written to Mr. Hsu Yuan, the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, stating that the Movement desires to construct a memorial road near Shanghai. "We propose," they declare, "to construct locally a memorial road which will be a model for other provinces to copy. We wish to find out now where foreign and Chinese territory begins and ends, and shall be glad, therefore, if you will kindly write to the Municipal and French Councils as well as the Chinese Bureau of Public Works asking them for plans of the already existing roads. As soon as we receive this information, surveyors will be engaged to make preparations."

THE NEW DANCES.

Argentine Fox Trot to Lead.

Once people tried to reform the dancers; now dancers are turning the tables and are going to reform the people—that is, if they are not beyond redemption.

We are always in need of a reformation, it appears, but fortunately for us, the agencies change from time to time.

The International Association of Masters of Dancing and the American Dancing Masters Association are both in session in New York, inventing new steps that will cause us to renounce our wild ways, our shimmy and our toddle.

They are not responsible for the immoral depths to which we have sunk, they say, though jazz music has led the dance astray, but they are pledging themselves to bring us back to normalcy.

They have decided that our dance diet for the coming season shall be restricted to the waltz, fox trot and tango. But they are trimming up these dances and adding new steps so that they will be adequate fare.

Steps will be shortened, so that the ladies with fashionably long skirts may look graceful. Music will be slightly accelerated so we are not tempted to do anything but dance. The death grip with which partners have held each other will be relaxed to an easy hold, and cheek-to-cheek dancing will be no more.

The Argentine fox trot is being picked as the winner for the season. It is easy, graceful—and moral.

FAR EASTERN OLYMPIC GAMES.

To be in Osaka.

The Far Eastern Games will be held in Osaka May 21 to 26, according to a decision reached by the Japan Amateur Athletic Committee. Track and field, swimming, basketball, tennis, association football, volleyball and basketball contests will be staged between Japan, China and the Philippines, the winner in each to hold the championship of the Far East until the next games two years afterwards.

The 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, the half mile, mile and five mile races, 120-yard high and 220-yard low hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, shotput, javelin throw, hop, step and jump, discus throw, half mile and mile relays, pentathlon and decathlon are included in the track and field events. The swimming meet will include the 100-yard, 440-yard and mile free-style races, 100-yard backstroke, 200 yard flat stroke, relays and diving contests. A special tennis tournament will be held for women.

U. S. PROTESTANT CHURCH.

Revision of the Prayer Book.

The forty-seventh triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the U. S. was held at Portland (O.) last month. The decisions include the following:

Revision of the prayer book: Elimination of the words "obey and with my worldly goods I thee endow" from the marriage service; Recognition of the ministry of healing with further study; Provision for a declaration on industrial questions with strong emphasis of the right of approval of the prohibition law enforcement;

Provision for ordination of congregational ministers by Episcopal bishops;

A declaration for a lighter divorce law;

Approval of a programme for the expenditure of $21,000,000 during the next three years.

The House of Bishops refused to sanction the action of the deputies in making it possible to have women lay readers.

EUROPE'S FLIGHT.

Col. House Blames America.

London, Aug. 16.—"Europe is in a worse condition now than it was last year."

That is the judgment of Colonel E. M. House, one-time unofficial U. S. ambassador to Europe. He has made an all-summer study of what he terms "a very sick patient."

"And there is no sure cure, no panacea, no patent cure-all," he said.

"The blame, he says, rests largely on America's policy of aloofness."

"It is not very easy to be optimistic about sick Europe's condition," said Colonel House, in an interview, "when one considers the chaos of Russia, the hopeless despair of Austria, the collapse of the German mark, and the apparent drifting apart of France and England over German reparations payments."

"France's position is understandable. More than any other nation she needs two things—cash and safety. Vast sums are needed to repair war damage to territory, which she alone has had to endure."

"And France alone looks across an imaginary boundary line, face to face with a Germany she fears: with her ever-growing population, her industrious workmen, her factories and farms intact, France fears a Germany bent on a war of revenge."

"Things would have been different for France, for Germany and for the world at large if the United States and Britain had honoured the signatures of their representatives. France would have been free from fears if these two nations had signed the pact guaranteeing her from German aggression. She would have been in a different frame of mind about German reparations. As it is, she feels that she cannot reduce the size of her army, expensive as it is."

Colonel House declared that Germany's most statesmanlike and most far-sighted men of affairs told him last year how much they regretted that America and England did not sign the pact to protect France.

"These Germans felt that such a pact would have eased the situation between Germany and France," he said, "that it would have led to a quicker restoration of Europe."

Germany, in Colonel House's opinion, lost her strongest man in the assassination of Walter Rathenau.

In discussing the proposed cancellation of inter-allied debts he said:

"That all goes back to the Versailles peace conference. If we had given France the guarantees she wanted, it is possible that some plan could have been worked out at Versailles which would have helped to stabilize finances and yet would not have crippled any country. Among other things it would have been possible to work out a sum that Germany could pay and that in all justice she should pay."

Colonel House would make no prediction about the League of Nations. America's ultimate course, he said, will be a problem of the next few years.

"But there is one sure thing, he added. "We can't have it both ways. If we turn our back upon Europe and the league we then have no right to complain if, as a result of the unsettled conditions in Europe, we find our trade crippled and many of our people out of work."

"In some fashion America sooner or later will have to help to restore the world. The war made it inevitable that after it was ended there would be only two great powers, as against about eight before the war. These two are America and Britain. Britain cannot bring about order in the world single-handed. America and Britain, working together, can do so."

CHINESE APPRECIATION OF JAPAN RED CROSS.

In appreciation of the services rendered to the Chinese wounded in the recent Chihli-Mukden fighting, by the Japan Red Cross Society, General Chang Tso-lin and several other commanders of the Mukden troops have offered, according to an official despatch to Tokyo, a contribution to the Society of amounts varying from Yen 500 to Yen 5,000. A number of the Chinese local Government officials, it is further reported, propose to enrol themselves as members of the Mukden branch of the Society.

BRITISH POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Who'll be the Next Premier.

Writing for an American paper, Mr. Milton Bronner, special correspondent, says:—Chaos marks the British political situation. All gossip centres about Mr. Lloyd George and these chief questions:—

When will a general election occur?

Who will win? Who will be the next Premier? Barring unforeseen circumstances—and Lloyd George—there will probably be no general election until the summer of 1933.

When it comes it is likely that a Coalition will again rule. Neither the Conservative nor the Liberal party will have a clear majority, and it is not thought now—contrary to recent beliefs—that the Labour party will be swept into power, though it is sure to have from 200 to 250 members in Parliament.

Premier possibilities are confined to these men:

Conservatives:—Lord Derby, Earl Balfour, Mr. Bonar Law, Mr. Austen Chamberlain, Lord Birkenhead.

Coalition Liberals:—Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Winston Churchill, "Wee Free" Liberals: Viscount Grey, Mr. H. H. Asquith, Labour: Mr. Arthur Henderson.

A Labour government would be regarded as nothing short of a revolution, but most Englishmen would feel safe with the reins in the hands of Mr. Henderson, who is not in any sense a radical. In the unlikely event of Labour winning, Mr. Henderson would be the certain choice for Premier.

The so-called "Wee Free" Liberals are improbable, for their section of the party is badly split between the followers of Lord Grey and Mr. Asquith.

Among the Conservatives Earl Balfour probably would be the most likely, but his acceptance of a peerage is considered "a sure sign that he never again expects to lead a government. Mr. Chamberlain, the present Tory leader, has too much opposition within his party. Mr. Bonar Law would have little chance because of his Ulster sympathies. Lord Birkenhead is flippantly said to have "a brilliant future behind him." And Lord Derby, though a successful war minister and ambassador to France, is too much of a great landlord and would suffer from the British prejudice against a Prime Minister being in the House of Lords.

So the "best bets" are narrowed down to Lloyd George and Winston Churchill. Wiseacres see in Lloyd George's decision to write a book of memoirs a sign that he plans to retire. But there is never any betting on what the Welshman will do. He is the most incalculable force in

AN INTERPRETER'S ABSENCE.

Wordy Exchange in Shanghai Court.

An interpreter's absence caused three lawyers to exchange wordy compliments in the Mixed Court at Shanghai last week when the case of the crews of the Astrakhan and the Enriar against these steamers for wages alleged to be due again came up for hearing.

In reply to Mr. Inyanow, the Senior Counsel's Assessor, Mr. Hartigan, who appeared for plaintiffs, said his interpreter had not yet turned up. He would go and look for him he said.

After he had been absent for several minutes, Dr. Fischer said it was funny that Mr. Hartigan's interpreter should have been absent for the third time this morning.

"It looks as though it is another attempt to prolong matters," said Mr. Alexander Ting who, together with Dr. Fischer, is counsel for defendants.

In the interval, Mr. Hartigan reappeared with the information that his interpreter was not to be found.

"I am awfully sorry," he said, "but I must not be held responsible for the absence of my interpreter. If he chooses to break his own neck by falling downstairs I can be no more responsible than I can be for his absence."

After some exchange of words with the two other lawyers, Mr. Hartigan said: "Very well, I call upon Dr. Fischer to allot me his interpreter."

Dr. Fischer: "I will do nothing of the kind. How dare you call upon me to allot to you my interpreter."

The Court remarked that in civil cases it was up to the lawyers to bring their own interpreters. Absence of interpreters at the Mixed Court equalled in every way the absence of lawyers. The Court wished to give counsel a chance, however, and adjourned the case for a further hearing.

British politics. It is not improbable that he might form an entirely new party based on the undoubted swing among the people toward liberalism.

If Mr. Lloyd George does retire, keep your eye on Mr. Churchill. This son of an American mother, only 48 and ablest of the younger men in Parliament, has been a war correspondent, a soldier and an author, and has served a long apprenticeship in every important cabinet post except two. He is personally popular, and has the qualities of conciliator so much needed in forming a Coalition Government.

SHIPPING NEWS.NEW FREIGHT RATE ON RICE.

A San Francisco message of the 23rd inst. states:—The Pacific Westbound Conference to-day agreed upon a new rate of four dollars a ton on rice to the Orient, effective October 1. Rice is around $5 a hundred-weight in San Francisco and Los Angeles, considerably above the Manila price. It is believed that the low rate is established in order to encourage shipment to Vladivostok. Japan has a short crop but is likely to import from Saigon until the California price reaches par with the current price in the Orient.

COAL TO OIL CONVERSIONS IN THE U.S.

A New York message states:—The steamers Medina, of the Mallory Line, and Pawnee, of the Clyde Line, have been turned over to the Tietjen and Lang plant of the Todd Shipyard Corporation for conversion from coal to oil burning. Todd mechanical burners manufactured by the White Fuel Oil Engineering Corporation are to be installed in each ship. The Tietjen and Lang yard has completed the installation of Todd mechanical burners in the New York Central tug No. 18, and it now engaged in installing oil burners in the New York Central tug No. 27.

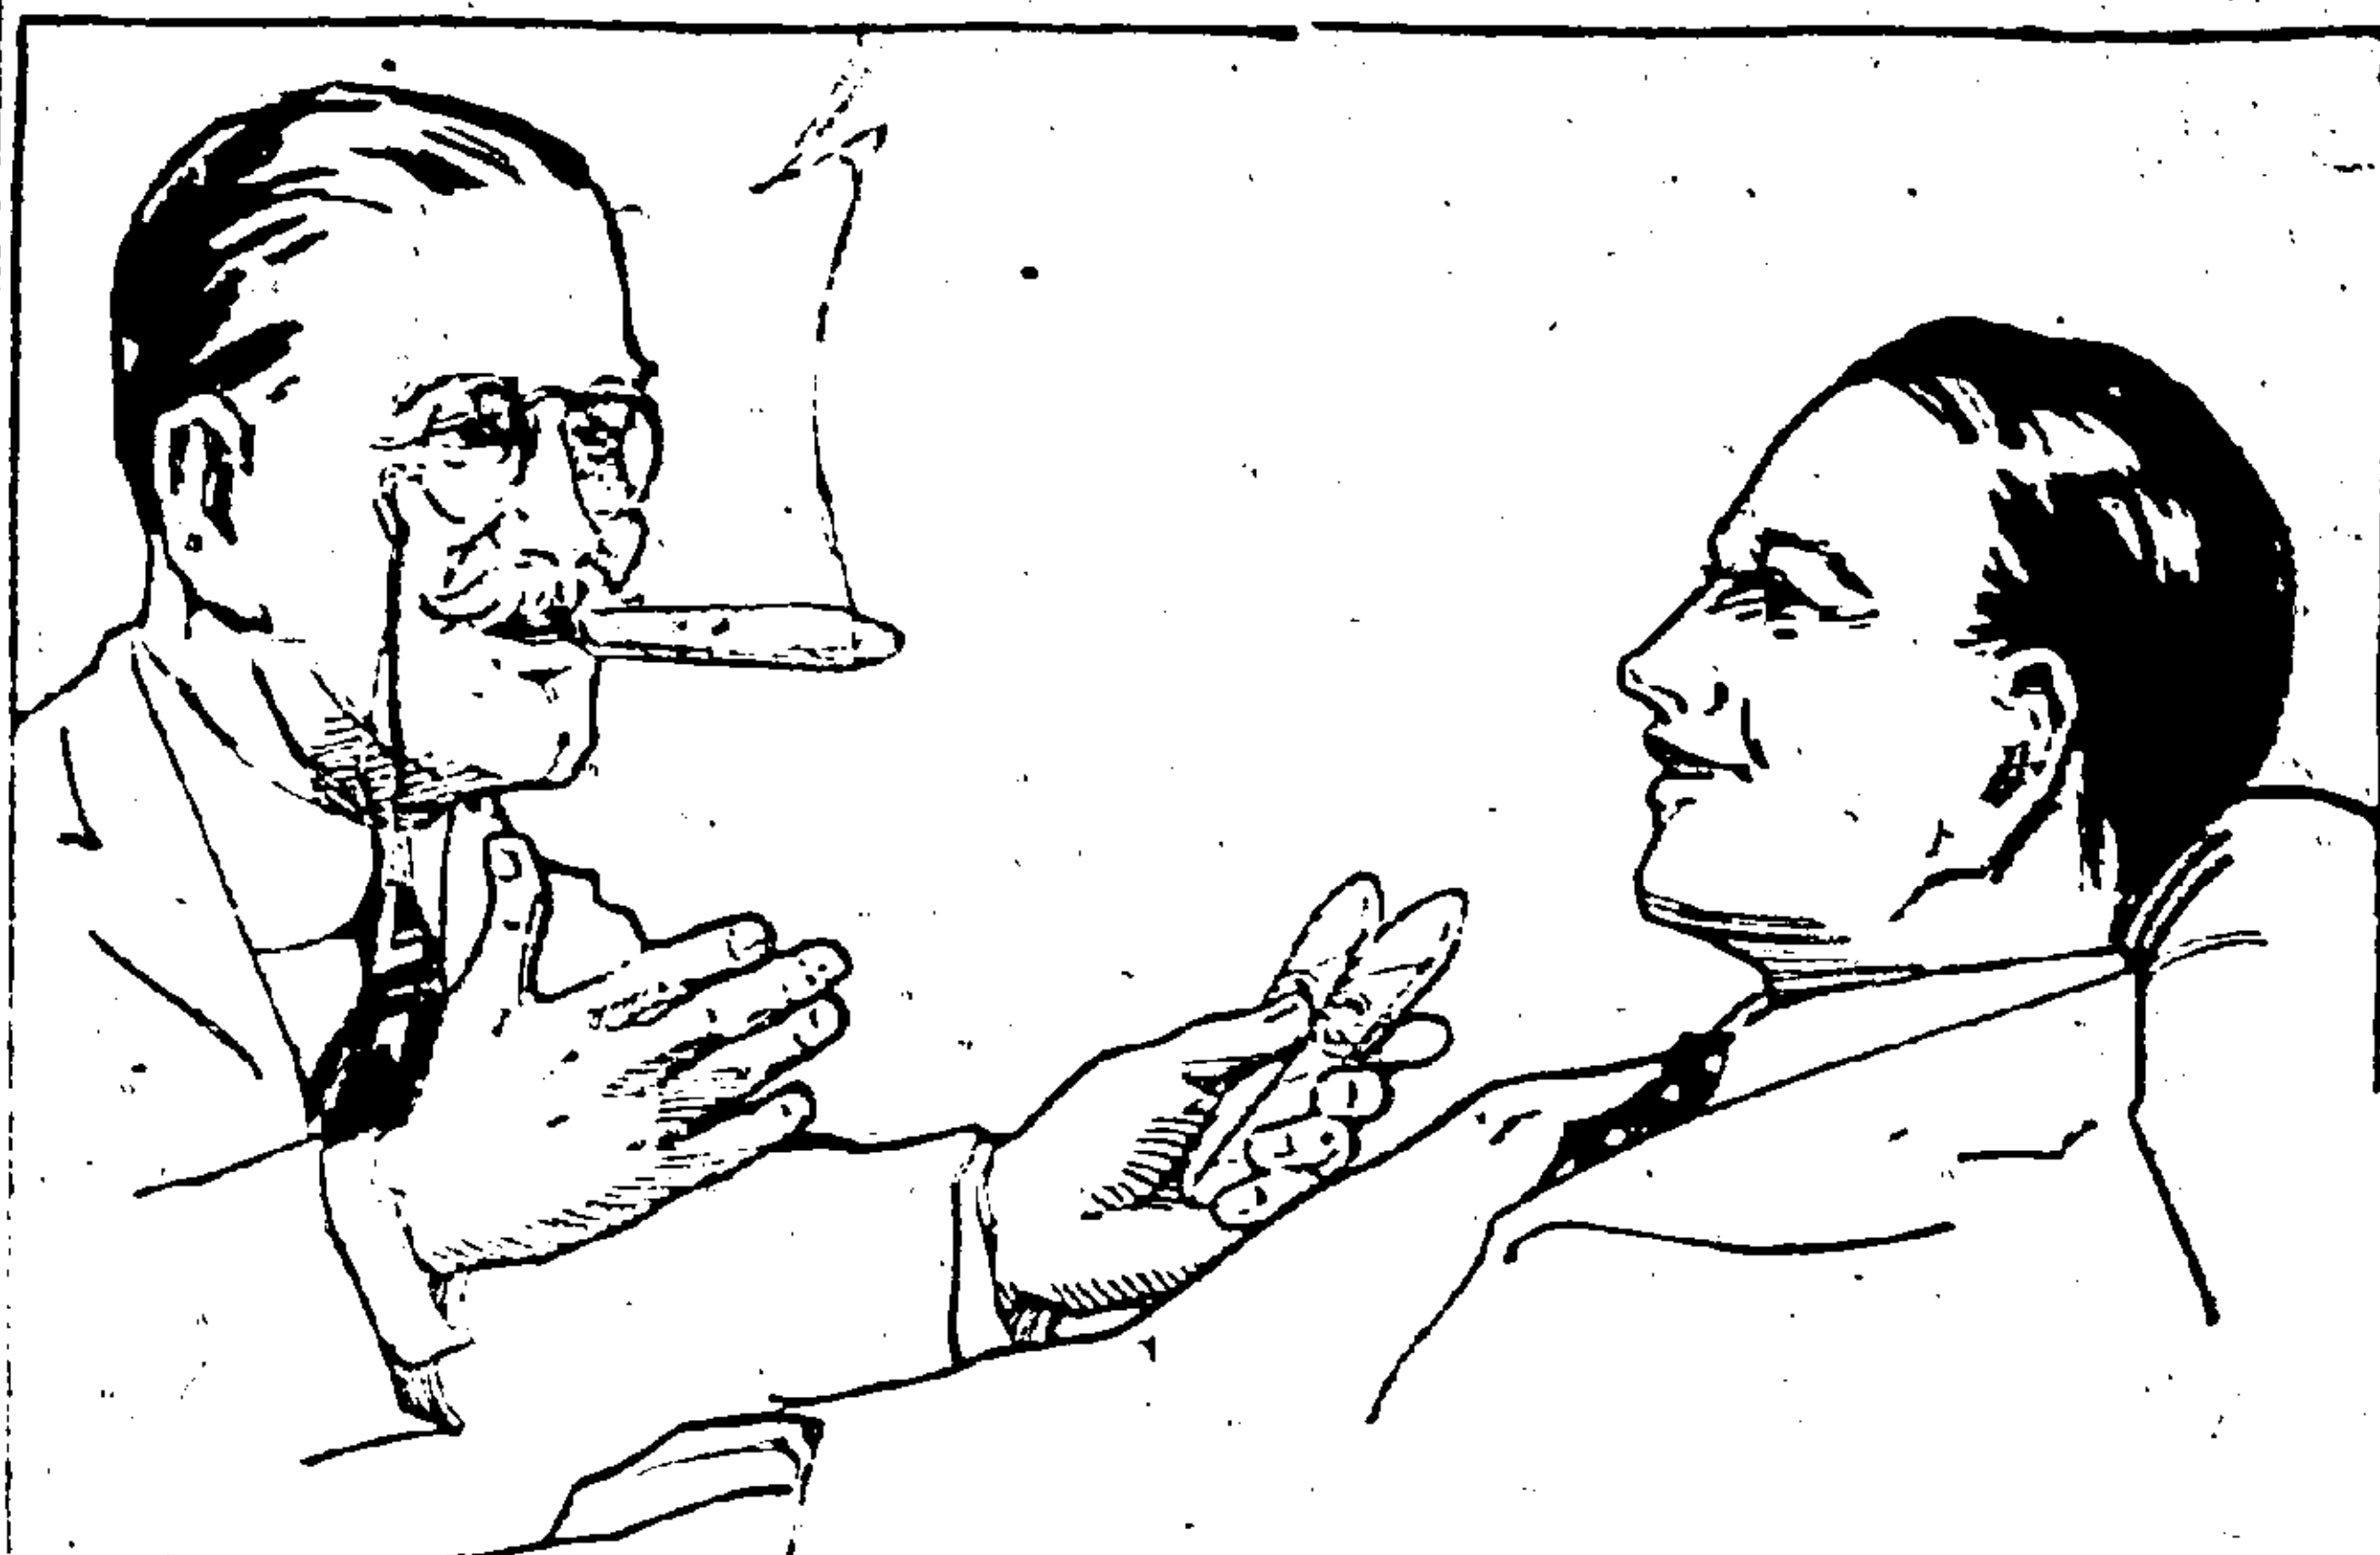

SHANGHAI FREIGHTS.

Messrs J.C. Wheelock & Co. Shanghai, in their circular of 21st Sept. state: There is no improvement to report in the export trade from China to Europe or America and except for a little tea going forward, the market is lifeless. To United States via Canals:—We would draw the attention of shippers to New York to the fact that the New York Conference, which has been in abeyance for over a year, has just been revived; a meeting of all the Lines interested was held on the 15th inst. at which an agreement was reached to raise the rates to roughly 50% of the last Tariff (23rd November 1920) and uniform rates of freight will be maintained in accordance with a Tariff now in course of publication. There is little or no change to report in our Northern Market but there has been a fair demand for tonnage on the Saigon-Hongkong-Canton run, and several fixtures have been made at rates ranging between 22 and 35 cents, Hongkong, Canton; as we go to press the market is easier.

U.S. LINES AND NORTH GERMAN LLOYD.

The last preliminary step in the negotiations of a contract with the United States Lines and the North German Lloyd has now been taken, the Shipping Board having instructed the committee designated to confer with the officials of the German steamship line to prepare a final draft, incorporating the agreements now contained in memoranda. While Mr. Lister, chairman, declined to give out the details of the agreement (states a Washington message), the outstanding features are:—1. The contract shall be for ten years, the Shipping Board reserving the right to abrogate upon short notice the agreement in event of the sale of Government-owned passenger liners to private interests. The North German Lloyd must give at least two years' notice, it is understood; 2. The North German Lloyd's terminals, for the handling of immigrants and freight, are to be placed at the disposal of the Shipping Board, compensation below that amount previously in effect to be paid; 3. The two steamship lines shall have, as far as practicable, alternate sailings. The Shipping Board is to be permitted to open offices for the booking of passengers in Germany and the North German Lloyd is to be given the same right in U.S. The Shipping Board operators must book their freight through the North German Lloyd in Germany ports, the westbound rates to be fixed by the Germans. The next immediate step in the matter will be the establishment of passenger booking offices in Germany and Central European countries. The Shipping Board has decided to take this action in order to provide an American organization in the various Continental cities. It is said the North German Lloyd officials have already agreed to the contract, and that nothing is necessary to consummate this agreement except the signature of Mr. Lister and the members of the Shipping Board. President Harding has been approved of the terms of the agreement, it is said.
